

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis would never have been possible without the support and assistance of my thesis major advisor, Dr. Saowarot Ruangpaisan, and my co-advisor, Assistant Professor Dr. Chookiat Jarat whom I would like to express my sincere gratitude for their valuable recommendations and guidance that were enable me to successfully complete this study.

In particular, I would like to show my deepest gratitude and appreciation to the honorable thesis chairman, Assistant Professor Dr. Pragasit Sitthitikul and thesis examination committee, Assistant Professor Dr. Nawamin Prachanant for their guidance and encouragement to edit and proofread throughout the completion of this paper. The thanks also go to Dr. Surachai Piyanukool, Mr. Henry Skip Dufour, and Mrs. Sombat Sayamprakhon, my experts, who have given their valuable time to read my work and share their comments and suggestions which are very useful for my paper. Without their supports and recommendations, this study may not be carrying out. I am particularly owed to Nonsuwanpittayakom School for allowing me to conduct this study. Sincerest thanks are owed to all participants, grade 8 students for their enthusiastic co-operation. I would like to thank to my colleagues and friends for their reinforcements. This research could not be complete without them.

Finally, I would like to offer my greatest regards and blessings to my wife, Mrs. Natthapicha Kotdok, who supported me in any respect during the completion of the study and inspire me to do my best.
